Paniccell

Panic Cell were suppose to be in the Unites States of America right now. Unfortunately red tape beurocracy has kept them in the UK. And if that wasn't bad enough, Cop Out sent Joe Leagle to interrogate Bobby, talk about kick 'em whilst their down!

WE HEARD THE BAND SHOULD BE ON TOUR IN THE USA RIGHT NOW, INSTEAD YOU GUYS ARE IN THE UK, TALKING TO COP-OUT, WHAT HAPPENED?

Our friends in Stuck Mojo kindly offered for us to come out to the U.S with them in July/August to do a bunch of shows for the pre release of their new album. Something we were obviously very excited about as we're gaining momentum in terms of our profile over there and this would have been a great platform to build on that. Unfortunately due to logistic visa reasons we were unable to commit and had to decline.

THE BAND HAVE THE HONOUR OF BIGGEST SELLING ALBUM ON THE CASKET ROSTER, DID YOU THINK THE ALBUM WOULD BEAS WELL RECEIVED AND SELL IN THE NUMBERS IT HAS DONE?

When we recorded "Bitter Part of Me" which was over 2 and a half years ago we knew we had produced something we were going to build on. The band had only been together as a unit for a few months and what was captured on that album was the bare bones of what was to come. In terms of acceptance from the public and performing live with such amazing bands, we certainly did not expect so much so soon if we're realistic about things.

THE BAND HAVE STUCK VERY MUCH TO THER GUNS AND DELIVERED ON "BITTER PART OF ME" A VERY HONEST, MATURE HARD ROCK ALBUM, THAT STANDS OUT FOR IT'S LACK OF TRENDY TRAITS AND ANY GIMMICKS. WAS THE BAND AT ANY TIME CONSCIOUS OF THE CURRENT SCENES AND WHAT EFFECT THIS WOULD HAVE ON THE BANDS DEBUT ALBUM?

We were fully aware of the music scene at the time and in certain places on the album you can hear the music leaning towards current trends of that time. However, we never set out to imitate. We have roots from growing up listening to great bands like Metallica, Slayer, AC/DC and much more and just wrote those songs as they came to us, no bullshit, just honest wear your heart on your sleeve type scenario.

IT'S BEEN A ROLLERCOASTER RIDE FOR THE BAND, SINCE IT'S RELEASE, WITH SOME AWESOME TOURS, SHARING STAGES WITH THE LIKES OF MICHAEL SCHENKER, FOZZY, STUCK MOJO, DISTURBED, AMERICAN HEADCHARGE, SOIL AND STAIND, TO SAY NOTHING OF APPEARANCES DOWNLOAD, WACKEN BLOODSTOCK. SHOWS THAT HAVE SEEN THE BAND TRAVEL THE WIDTH AND BREADTH OF THE COUNTRY AS WELL AS IRELAND, GERMANY, ITALY AND OTHERS. HOW HAS THE BAND MANAGED TO KEEP THE WHOLE THING FRESH ON THE BACK OF JUST ONE ALBUM, FOR OVER TWO YEARS?

What we have to remember is that noone knew who Panic Cell were when we released the album back in 2004. In fact the first 9 months or so we worked from the bottom up. Bear in mind most bands out there will release 2-3 e.ps/ demos and build their audience. We did that with Bitter Part of Me and to an extent for those first 9 months we were partially in the "public" eye. It wasn't until we performed at Bloodstock 2004 on the main stage as an "unknown" band to most that BPOM picked up steam which was quickly followed by our first tour with American Head Charge at the end of 2004 that we started to emerge as real contenders. Those moments aside, we look at 2005 and the first part of 2006 as where we really had to tour the album and things were kept so fresh as we were able to perform to bigger audiences who hadn't heard of Panic Cell and that in itself kept things fresh for us. Going back to the fact that BPOM was the "bare bones" for us, come to a live show and hear those songs live. we've built on them, extended them... basically made them more exciting for us and more importantly, the audience.

IT HAS BEEN A LENGTHY CYCLE FOR A DEBUT ALBUM AT THIS LEVEL, HAS THIS VERY MUCH BEEN PART OF A BIGGER PLAN, OR JUST NATURALLY THINGS FALLING INTO PLACE THAT HAVE KEPT THE BAND ON THE ROAD AND AWAY FROM THE STUDIO?

Ideally we would have been in the studio earlier but the plan was always to get as much exposure as we could. We've been fortunate enough to make friends on our travels which have led from one project to another which has enabled us to make new friends and fans and really help boost our profile globally. As much as we love the first album its now time to move on to the next chapter, we're primed and ready for the next step.

THE BAND HAVE BEEN VERY ACTIVE ON THE VIDEO CLIP FRONT, AND WE HAVE SEEN A NUMBER OF VIDEOS LIFTED FROM JUST THE ONE, DEBUT ALBUM, AGAIN SOMETHING THAT IS RARE AT THIS LEVEL, HOW HAVE THESE COME ABOUT, AND WHAT ARE YOUR FEELINGS TOWARDS THE IMPORTANCE OF VIDEOS AS A PROMOTIONAL TOOL?

The appearance of Digital TV stations Kerrang and Scuzz are a godsend to WE UNDERSTAND THE BAND HAVE expect but with a lot of twists. We've bands like Panic Cell and many others, if it wasn't for TV stations the early days of Panic Cell may not have been so fruitful. We've been fortunate enough to have 3 videos on regular rotation not just on those channels but on the likes of MTV and more, its an avenue we're keen to explore more as it gives an unbiased feedback stream that lets the viewer make their own mind up instead of being told what they should think by magazines.

THERE WAS TALK THAT AN OFFER WAS PUT ON THE TABLE FOR THE BAND FROM EARACHE, IS THIS TRUE AND WHAT HAPPENED WITH THAT?

BEEN WORKING WITH ANDY SNEAP IN PREPARATION FOR THE NEXT ALBUM, HAS ANYTHING COME OF THIS AND WHAT EXACTLY, OR WHEN MORE IMPORTANTLY WILL WE SEE THE RELEASE OF ALBUM NUMBER TWO, WHAT CAN WE EXPECT FROM THAT?

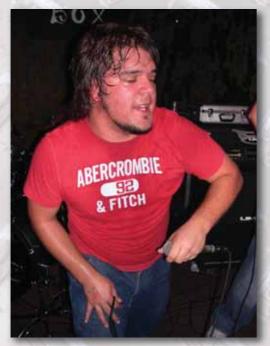

Rich Ward from Stuck Mojo suggested Andy and Panic Cell get together, the timing was right. We were looking to get some pre production work done and Andy wanted to test some equipment out for his studio. We spent a day together recording a live session and came out with an awesome demo. We're still exploring had time to develop our sound and take inspiration from the bands we've toured with. We're looking to release a single/ video in the latter part of 2006 with a release date fixed for around Feb 2007.

Panic Cell are likely to be playing in a town near you at any time soon, so be sure to catch them and in the meantime check them out on the CD cover mount on this Issue of Cop Out.

OUT NOW! PANIC CELL - "Bitter Part Of Me" Casket Music (CSK023) £9.99

In the midst of their headline UK tour, and having just returned from a successful trip to the States, all in support of their fantastic debut album "Aporia", Joe Leagle caught up with front man Renny Carroll and asked him just how things were for the Essex mob.

SINCE THE RELEASE OF THE DEBUT ALBUM "APORIA" THE BAND HAVE BEEN EXTREMELY BUSY WITH SEVERAL HIGH PROFILE TOURS AND HAVE JUST RETURNED FROM TOURING THE STATES WITH STUCK MOJO. HOW HAVE THE BAND COPED WITH THE NEW INTENSE ACTIVITY?

Pretty well to be honest. We really enjoy touring, and playing live, so we'd much rather be insanely busy than inanely not! 26 shows in 30 days in America was a bit hardcore, the week off after that was much needed I think by all of us, but any more than a week and we'd have been a bit bored - so it was good we had the UK tour dates to look forward to when we got home. We're und illusion though, the more work you put in, the more you get out of it. The the more we play the more we're going to get heard, so we're very aw band that needs it more than us... Apparently. But yes, the feedback has been great - we just wanna see some more to come in the future

A NEAT MIX OF NU-METAL ECCENTRICITY, AND MELODIES LINKIN PARK WOULD BE PROUD OF TOGETHER WITH AN EDGE AND SPARK RARELY HEARD THIS SIDE OF THE POND SINCE UK UNDERGROUND FAVES VACANT STARE, A BAND FOREVER NEVER HAVE OFTEN BEEN LIKENED TOO. IS THE BAND FAMILIAR WITH THE BERKSHIRE OUTFIT? AND HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR SOUND?

I saw Vacant Stare a number of times, and supported them once - they were a great band, but I was never really 'influenced' by Vacant Stare when writing some of the stuff on "Aporia". We have had that comparison a few times, but personally I think we're a much heavier band - but whilst maintaining a very melodic edge at the same time. I don't really mind saying that some of our choruses are even "poppy" to some degree, because they are I guess - as a singer I've been really influenced by the likes of Seal, Stevie Wonder and Michael MacDonald, and those guys all know how to write some killer melody lines. Much better than anyone in the metal business in my opinion. That's why I think our sound has something a little different to offer someone. Because our influences really are varied, there are a lot of different styles going into the mix. Like Michael Bolton singing over Slayer. haha.

THE LYRICS ARE AGAIN, VERY STRONG, POWERFULL, HEARFELT MESSAGES LEAP FROM THE HYMN SHEET. HOW IMPORTANT ARE LYRICS TO THE BAND IN GENERAL?

Well, for me they are important, but not as much as the melodies to go with them Well, for me they are important, but not as much as the melodies to go with them. I always think when writing melody lines that you should almost have an idea of what the lyrics are about without actually listening to the words. If the melody is uplifting then you know the lyrics are gonna be some positive stuff. The lyrics on the album are really quite varied ranging from everyday problems, to some surreal concepts like on "Silent Elegy to The Living". "Drowning" is about exactly that, but I don't really know where the idea of writing a song about liquid suicide came from! It just seemed like a cool idea for a song. If people draw their own conclusions for the songs, that's totally cool - I've got my own spin on them all, but that's not to say even my ideas are the right ones. It's all open to discussion, which I think is pretty damn cool.

AS PART OF A VERY THRIVING UK SCENE, WITH A GROWING NUMBERS OF LABELS, AND YOUNG PROMOTERS AND BANDS TAKING TO HELPING EACH OTHER OUT AND GETTING MORE INVOLVED WITH THEIR PASSION, HOW DO YOU SEE THE UK AT THE MOMENT, IS IT AS HEALTHY AS IT APPEARS?

I think between the bands it's pretty cool, we've made some very good band friends while we've been playing around the UK, Allerjen and Fourwaykill for example are both ace bands, but very cool people too, and whenever we play together there always seems to be a sense of unity, which is great. Obviously getting things right for us. It's better than having a manager who takes his 20% and only really cares about the money going into his wallet, regardless of how much the band might get screwed for example. She has done a lot of work for us, and rest assured won't take any shit from anyone and is always looking out for us. We're aware (us and her) that there may come a point where she needs to hand us over to someone else, but that isn't just going to be ANYONE. It's going to have to be someone that gains the trust of Mum - and believe me, that's tought habs. She would mite literally climb a mountain for us if she thought it would on. haha. She would guite literally climb a mountain for us if she thought it would do us some good, it's awesome and we're all very grateful for all the work she's put into it up until now. And no, she didn't tell me to say that! At the end of the day, I'm very lucky that I've got family that supports me to do this rather than ones that go "pfft Bands?? Not worth the bother!"

THE BAND WERE RECENTLY QUOTED AS MORE OR LESS "GOING OUT ON THE ROAD, NOT HAVING TO WORK, BECAUSE THIER PARENTS SUPPORTED THE BAND" DO YOU THINK THIS WAS MISCONCEIVED AS LITTLE RICH BOYS LIVING OFF THEIR PARENTS, OR WAS THE ARTICLE MISREPRESENTATIVE?

I think actually it's a bit of both. George still has to get a job in between tours and such to live off, and Kev was doing guitar lessons to get a bit of cash in. The fact is we're not earning big money or anything yet, but if we don't give it a proper shot, we might as well not bother at all. We're lucky that our families help us out as and when they can, and for sure - there are a few things that we couldn't have done without their help, but it wasn't easy for THEM either to help us out. But fuck why does it matter? Do we score "cool points" for being a bunch of smelly fucks who hate our parents? They all come to the shows, and we love having them there - it's cool. But again in answer to the question, parents and support aside - let's not forget there is talent involved in a bands success moving forward. No amount of cash can get you anywhere if you suck, so we're lucky to be able to live at home cash can get you anywhere if you suck, so we're lucky to be able to live at home rent free and do this full time, but on the other hand it's not like we're out every night getting pissed and blowing money that isn't ours on posh food and drink. We gig, we rehearse, we chill at home - and occasionally have a night out. That's it.

THE BAND TURNED DOWN WHAT WAS RUMOURED TO BE A LUCRATIVE DEAL BY LARGE INDIE LABEL ONE LITTLE INDIAN. WAS THIS TRUE AND WHAT MADE THE BAND TURN THEIR BACK ON THAT AND OPT FOR THE DIY ETHOS YOU HAVE WITH THE CURRENT LABEL?

Well we got offered a deal from them quite early in our career with our original Well we got offered a deal from them quite early in our career with our original guitarist, and there were a number of reasons we weren't too keen on going that route. For one thing, OLI weren't known for their metal releases and we kind of wondered whether they could really market a metal band in the right way. Everyone at the label was cool and stuff, and when we went down there for meetings and stuff it all looked good and stuff, but we weren't sure that the deal we were being offered was particularly fair, and after speaking to some solicitors we decided that we valued ourselves a bit more than to just sign the first deal thrown at us. So many bands get into deals that they then struggle for years to get out of because of rash quick decision. The DIY way, we are our own label essentially and we can decide where our music goes, and still the kind of work ethos that is required to make a go of it to tally own the copyright to our songs and can decide what in the industry.

To we store to tally own the copyright to our songs and can decide what to do with them, unlike if we'd have signed to a label like OLI where it would have been so much out of our hands. of smelly fucks who hate our parents?"

TALKING OF THE USA TRIP. HOW DID THIS GO FOR THE BAND AND DID THE CROWDS WARM TO THE BAND. ONE THAT SURELY NONE WOULD BE FAMILIAR WITH?

Very well indeed! I think we went down really well in most places - it was a much added bonus being from across the pond as it wasn't every day some of these places got a band from such a long distance go to their rural out of the way towns. It was also good to see at some places people had taken the time to check us out online via the wonder that is Myspace so they knew what to expect a bit before we got on stage. So yeah, on the whole a lot of the crowds were unfamiliar with us, but there was also occasions when people had already bought our merch before we'd even stepped foot onstage, which was really cool - knowing that someone was actually looking forward to seeing us enough to buy a tee shirt beforehand.

THE REACTION TO THE ALBUM, HAS BEEN PRETTY MUCH UNIVERSALLY OVERWHELMING, WITH PRETTY MUCH ALL OF THE MAJOR PRESS TAKING KINDLY TO THE RECORD. HAVE YOU BEEN PLEASED WITH THAT FEEDBACK?

Absolutely, the reviews were on the whole very positive about the album, and it's great to know that we're doing something right. It's funny though, despite some of the awesome write-ups, getting an actual feature or such in a magazine is such a mission! The fact is, there is only so much column space and apparently there's always some completely unknown American we have an international link with our new buddies in Stuck Mojo tour - which is also a very cool feeling having a band that were once your idols turn into friends too. It's very cool indeed! But the UK scene still has a lot to do... I mean it would be nice if the UK press actually did something to help its own bands coming up the ranks, but I'm still seeing so much stuff from across the pond taking up all the magazine space. I do think this is a mistake on behalf of the UK press; they could be doing so much to make the UK scene a more thriving and interesting scene. Part of the reason other countries aren't interested in UK music is purely because its own nation isn't even interested in it. It stands to reason though really, if you're not proud of something you're doing - why would anyone else be interested in hearing it/seeing it? There are a lot of promoters around now putting on DIY gigs in the UK, and this is awesome, and I have utmost respect for the guys putting on the shows - it's good to know that some people really are trying to make a go of things here.

THE BAND ARE MANAGED BY "THE SECOND COMING OF SHARON OSBOURNE" ANNETTE CARROLL, FRONTMAN RENNY'S MOTHER. HOW HAS THIS WORKED OUT FOR EVERYONE IN THE BAND? IS IT EASY FOR RENNY TO BE BOTH THE MANAGED ARTIST AND LOVING SON, OR IS IT ALWAYS SHOP TALK AT THE DINNER TABLE.

Hahahaha. Well it does seem like a large percentage of our conversations are about the band and music and stuff - but that's just how committed she is to

THE BAND ARE CURRENTLY ON A HEADLINE UK TOUR, WHAT ARE THE PLANS FOLLOWING THIS?

Well once this run of shows are over, we've got a couple of festivals to play (Uxfest and End of Days Festival) and then the next step is to try and get on another couple of decent tours before we take a break out to rehearse and start another couple of decent tours before we take a break out to rehearse and start writing some new material, probably in the new year. We're still toying with what to do next... The next thing we put out might not be a full length album, we've got a couple of really cool ideas, but I don't wanna give anything away - but there could be a new FN cd of some description in the first part of the new year perhaps! Also we've got a shitload of footage from America that we might even bung together as a DVD to get to know us a bit better, but we'll see what happens there! Other than all that, we're just gonna keep doing what we're doing: playing live, headbanging and keeping it heavy! Life is good. Hehe

FOREVER NEVER "Aporia" (CSK075) £8.99

SAKEN – Embraced By Misery

Cartel Media - £8.99
Melodic Death Metal from Illinios, USA. A very competent release indeed, and the band are no strangers to the scene, with two previous albums already under their belt on such heavy weight Labels as Lifeforce and latterly Century Media. But this is in fact, not a new title, but a re-release of the debut album originally hitting the racks in 2000, with three added bonus tracks. A very worthwhile purchase if you're into the likes of In Flames and Soilwork 3/5

ANATA - The Conductor's Departure
Earache Wicked World - £11.99

A Math record, a new one for you eh? Following Ephel Duath in their complicated structures and ability to baffle the listener with some degree of class. For me it's where bands like Cynic and Atheist left off and would be today had they perhaps had an ounce of stamina. Like an earl Opeth but never so quiet or orchestrated and with roots set firmer in DM

ANTI-GAMA – Discomfort
SelfMadeGod - £8.99
Grindcore noise from Poland, but of exceptional quality and could easily be mistaken for the style that comes to us from Japan. Antigama has execution down to a fine art and this will not disappoint fans of the genre.

HOMER – The Punkrock Verses Funtime- £8.99

Funtime- 8.899
High quality, as one has come to expect from this well respected Belgian Label. Melodic Punk of the highest order and a slight overall maturing of the bands sound on this full length, following on from a couple of spills in the last couple of years. For those who like their melodic side, fighting a touch of screamo, this could be for you.

Darell E Ganapo

THE MAPLE ROOM - Uncover Everyone

Funtime / Four Aces – £8.99
A force to be reckoned with on their home turf of Belgium, that being their only downfall, because coming from Ohio and being signed to Victory, is the thin line between household name fame, and street cred without bread. From Autumn To Ashes, Poison The Well, The Maple Room, they sit together just as well for me, so if you like the former, buy the latter and reap the reward. 5/5

Qualify emo post hardcore, that only can be faulted by the genre in which it sits becoming a stagnated pond, of will be a shame for many quality acts still rearing their ugly heads, such as these. A line mix of Funeral For A amazing depth and strength in its meiodies and has quite rightly caused quite a stir already.

Incredibly impressive follow up for the Yorks Techno Industri-Metal mob, with a bit of Zombie and Kill 2 This, here spiced up with a much darker industrial edge and electronic enhancements, the album twists and turns and

V.A. – Garry Dude 2
Voltage Rcds - £6.99
Lo fi skale punked up compilation that has plenty of street creet and rock in roll attitude, in fact Sugarshack reminds one of Rolling Stones on track two, whilst Stalefish 1 (RIP) do bring a more nu-metal to the proceedings and therefore you soon get a sense of balance across the great alternative divide. Highlights tracks come from Industrial Wazards SNA or indeed the rock tastic End Of Level Boss, which reminds me a little of Almighty here. This is a cool little comp, but only worth the money if found on a budget price.

Larter Media - E8.99
I was so hoping this would be the awesome disc, its appearances and record label blurb so promised. This Italian mob can play, don't get me wrong, but when it comes to Melodic Metal, it is light years away from the In Flames and Sollwork. If likes to compare itself with Good quality and well played, but a little lacklustre and flawed in the writing.

GEN – Rite Of Refusal
Holler Than Thou - 18.99
Here's one for you, Christian nu-metal, I guess we do have POD already, but hey, these are Brits. Recorded in the USA and exploring a variety of styles it has to be said, and further still, despite nods in the direction of many illustrious peers - Limp Bizkit, III Nino, Breed 77 and POD included, this is actually very, very good. It's what makes listening to new music all the more worthwhile, when you get something you have completely no knowledge of, and it kicks the arse of more than just a few of their American counterparts, but will you read about these in Kerrangt , will you t'r'k, they are on a Label with no money and therefore the music alone won't carry it, to its full potential, a crying shame.

The hardworking Sussex mob move forward umpteen steps with this, their third album, (we're not counting the ill-judged Live Album) a new Record Deal and a new singer, has given the band such a new dimension and diversion; that it's a wonder they haven't also thought about a new name. The monster has been tamed and in Fraser (ex-Vex Red spin off Scenes frontman) they have finally got someone in the band who can really sing, less angsty, but way more emotional and passionate than previous man Ollie. More Stereophonics now than Deftones, but that's not a bad thing.

Fury 76 - £8.99.
With ex-members of Tygers O f Pan Tang, The Almighty and The Reign, I really wasn't sure what to expect from this, but disappoint it did not. It's not as eclectic as their former selves may ahave suggested, held together by a free flowing rock solid groove and strong traditional, anthemic hard rock structures, ear candy to those perhaps old enough to have voted more than once.

HEAVY WATER – Simple Songs For Complicated

Fury 76 - £8.99

Great quality post grunge alt rock with more than a nod and a wink in the direction of Alice In Chains. Groovetastic, rifferama with cool vocals, until that is, "The Solipsist" when some dreadful female vox spoil proceedings. That aside this is an awesome piece of work and definitely worth investigating.

CIRCLE OF DEAD CHILDREN - Zero Comfort Margin

CIRCLE OF DEAD CHILDREN – Zero Comfort Marg Earache Willowtip - £10.99 US grindcore, that hints much at early straight death, and by early, I mean early in a bands career, before those bands went on to play a more mature blend of death, or some would argue, could play proper like...lot of interesting points throughout the album intercut with samples, and loses it's brutality for this.

THE DOWNFALL – Transporter Voltage Rcds - £8.99
Second album and unfortunately I am not privry to the bands first effort, but I will say that this is a great up-tempo record with plenty going on and serves up a neat concoction of alternative rock ala Feeder or The Wildhearts with a much sharper edge to them.

KANIA – Remorse Cartel Media - £5.99

Mini effort from Australian outfit doing Hypocrisy (as well) and In Flames (almost) and serves as a taster of a forthcoming full length, and serves well, as a four track appetizer, it most certainly has one salivating at the prospect, of what could be a stormer of a debut.

Thrash meisters show comeback was no fluke, following success of Tempo Of The Damned' and though this does not quite hit the high spots, their last album did. This still is full of raw and thrashtastic moments, riffs are huge, and drumming, courtesy of ex-Slayer man Bostaph is solid. New vocalist Rob Dukes does well to fill vacant shoes.

SUSPERIA – Devil May Care
Tuba - £8.99
A journo likes to do his research yknow, and as the release was full of extras such as screensavers, wallpapers, clips etc., I thought the site was bound to be awesome..it was down. Oh well. This is a wonderful, value for money release, with its covers of "Wild Child" (WASP), "Lack of Comprehension" (Death) and "The Sun Always Shines on TV"(A-HA). On the original material the weight of the riffs is very reminiscent of Testament, with whom the band toured with last year.

Marc Rizzo, day job = Soulfily guitarist. This is not quite

THE GREEN – Primary Colours
Holter Than Thou - £8.99
Middle of the road driving rock, good tempo, well executed and perfect for the car on route 66, but perhaps not a hit on the A40 between Slough and Reading. Certainly well crafted songs and accomplished musicianship, but the songs don't take you anywhere new and the album falls a little flat. A reasonable effort but a little too nondescript rock to go any distance, even on Route 66.

CRIMINAL - Sicario Metal Blade - £11.99

Often compared to Sepultura, possibly more due to originating from South America, than for their sound. This is not to say they have not in the past, and on this here release borrowed from that great band, but also as much from the likes of Kreator, in fact it's the German outfit, they remind me of the most. It's very strong musically, structures either of those great names would now kill for, without a filler in sight, and without any shadow of doubt, their most accomplished record by far Incredibly this band began life in the late seventies, though reformed in 1999 and now offers up some incredibly powerful metal. Very European sounding, incredibly passionate and riffs that will bounce in your head for weeks.

Nuclear Blast - £12.99

Swedish Crossover kings offer sixth album. It may be some two years since their last album, but moreover it's been over ten years since "Nigger" and "The Truth" and with the genre now very tired, it may be that the band were arguably once ahead of their time, but unfortunately now they lag very, very far behind, and this is for completists only.

In all honesty, you can't really knock this outfit, as they

the band have really honed in on their craft now, all that louring , visiting every dive across the UK as well aggression, attitude and hatred, captured well by Tue

Positive Impact - £5,99

Pop Punk from Exeter in the spirit of Bad Religion and NOFX. Bouncy enough and light enough to be harmless and perfectly well crafted to cause a stir or two, but within a genre so saturated, it takes something special and I am not convinced by this effort alone, though this is a good solid record.

It's hard to believe that this is the bands twelve outing, and that these guys have been around for something like nearly twenty years. I mean such feats were only suppose to be achieved by rock dinosaurs, you know real musicians, classic arena stadium type bands, not cult acts like Darkthrone. The joke is that it is in fact a joke, there is no insult here, the band have said as much for some lime now, and still, we buy the lo-fi, awfully produced fodder the band put out, even the sales sheet – you know the blurb a record label puts together, normally so full of sh't, here actually quotes Darkthrone mainman – 'call it black metal, call it evil metal – I don't care', and I really believe he doesn't. Wowl I now know why all the accolodes the Download appearance, etc. You're onto a real winner when the only gripe is the short length of your listening pleasure, Could this in fact be the next Vacant Stare - you know the band who themselves could have been the next big UK metal prospect, courted by Roadrunner before they fell apart. Well I hope so, because the country needs it and badly. Brutal yet melodic, bouncy and crunchy enough for the moshers at the front, and enough crisp and elegant vocal performances for the listeners at the back of the room. This mini album jumps out at you with full force, and an energy you can truly sense, and before you know it's allended. Really looking forward to their debut full length.

ENEMO-J – The Angels Will Return To Us
Enemo-J (pronounced eeneemo-jay) and something to do with Ninja warriors no doubt are an interesting prospect, if from the States, and out five years ago, the name would not have to be spealt out for pronunciation, it undoubledly being of the household variety-but as it stands, from Brum or thereabouts and possibly just the wrong end of the whole nu-metal exploision it's hard to forecast. But should the band exploit their qualities in going forward, such as character, which the album reeks of and it's more straight faced hardcore movements, we could well still see a scary prospect in the next record or two.

ATOMIC ANTS – Keep Cool & Dry
An Italian outfit with humour, class and the odd question mark. Very reminiscent of early Chilli Peppers, when they were more or less just a quality funk rock prospect, as oppose to the multi million arena mammoth machine they are now of course. In Junior they have a vocalist that compliments the band and doesn't detract at all and the Spandsu Ballet cover is not that bad, actually 4/5

Itallian metallers who bring something new to the often overused hardcore nu-metal mix many of their contemporaries are expressing. With a funky groove here and an electro moment there, a refreshing mix to say the very least. Melody and brutality have not gone off the radar mind and this makes the album a pretty complete affair

Jo Leagle

KEENANTS – Let's Start From The Beginning Italian nu metal with hints from Machine Head, to Faith No More and even System Of A Down (title track) but possibly not enough of it's own identity to get this much further, in a world where competence and good quality are simply not enough, a band like Keenants need to dig a little deeper, for something that this record shows signs of having, maybe on the next one 2/5

Darell E Ganapo

THE UNCHOSEN – In My Head
This is in fact the bands second effort, following a debut on Hollier Than Thou Records. The album and possibly the band are going to be best remembered for their effort on Michael Jackson's "Billie Jean", with it's nifty video to boot. Outside of this, the odd ballad and few rocking remembers by the billier premises of a dome fine out to moments, bring to life memories of a damn fine pub band, but nor sure it will go down so well on an arena stage at anytime in the near future

PSYLENCE – Through Distorted Eyes
A debut from the Nottingham mob that mixes the right amount of metal mayhem and melody, both musically and vocally, with screams jumping to more sensitive times with seamless ease. A good powerful metal debut from which the band have the perfect platform from which to huild on. which to build on. 4/5

Alf Donatien

BULLETS FOR TEETH – Six Sides Of Fortune
Bril-Rock Metal with a production that puts Bullets For Teeth in a league of their own
In a world of wannable soundalikes, this four piece fror Yorkshire do have some originallity and musicianship second to none. A real gem
5/5

Paul Schinnbach

FIGURE OF SIX – Step One
Step One is a very focused debut album and Fo6 have a good balance of all their components (with a DJ and keyboards added to the melting pot). Equal parts epic and crushing, a very accomplished and highly recommended record.

IN SO FAR - The Fall

£ 2.99
A different blend of melodic pop.punk. In So Far, cater to the ever humming catchy chorus brigade, but throw in guitar licks descendent of G NTR or Jane's Addiction and lyrics that depict the decadent side of life with a tin of sensitivity. The three tracks on offer encapsulate the qualities that catapulted bands like Hundred Reasons and Lost Prophets into the limelight in recent years.

ENEMY UNKNOWN – Alert Status:Red
Bay area thrash from Surrey & very well executed indeed! I can't help thinking Metalica meets Slayer when Ilisten to these guys, but in truth! I think you can hear the best of many mega metal bands from the mid eighties or nineties. Produced by Nick Hemingway (CANCER)
I think the production speaks for itself! Excellent, if not totally original! totally original

Paul Schinnbach

DEMONBREED - Closer To God

DEMONBREED – Closer To God
Speed and ferocity in abundance does not a good album make. The songwriting here is in fact not too shabby to say the least, mixing a good blend of heavy metal fare with close to death metal precision, kind of Nile meets Killshwitch Engage, bringing to the table plenty of classic and the comtemporary. But unfortunately the performace is slightly lacking and the band suffers from some poor disjointed moments, with it all sounding a little like some good ideas were not explored long enough to become great moments, and is one of those that shows so much promise but doesn't present itself, just yet. omise but doesn't present itself, just yet.

Darell E Ganapo

RSJ - Reflections In B Minor

RSJ play brutal Lamb of God-esque metal. Their debut is twelve tracks of intensity, each one the aural equivalent of going a round with a concrete glove filled Mike Tyson who's had his pint spilled for the last time.

lames O'Tool

NIOTA - Cold Red

The debut sees past members of Quantum Bigfoot and Visible Noise artistes Primary Slave, get together to form a beautiful sound, bringing together the gap between Deftones and Poison The Well to a happy conclusion, alt rock, nu metal, emo, whatever today's in words are, this band meets all the criteria and shape their own version of the future of rock, outstanding.

Darell E Ganape

ABIGAIL'S MERCY – Salvation

Awesome display of something wr only had over in Europe, logether with Season's End, this is proving to be a real contender for the throne currently held by Europeans such as Nightwish, Within Templation and Lacuna Coil, and though not as operatic as perhaps those, this leans more lowards standard goth fare, and mixes the modern sound with that of the likes of Sisters Of Mercy. Another pat on the back for the Brits.

NIGHTMARE VISIONS – NVIII
Proper Heavy Metal, this is. Black Sabbath drenched riffing, with heavyweight drums. Powerful stuff, with each of the four tracks standing at the 6 plus minute time mark. Doom inspired metal Northern style, bringing to mind the heavier moments from the likes of My Dying Bride, fused with more traditional metal riffage.

Darell E Ganapo

SINOCENCE – Black Still Life Pose
An honest piece of work undoubtedly and putting your demos out as your first release is nothing new, but there is a good reason why most bands tend not to, and that's production. This album is full of good hard metal rocking moments and it's easy to see why the band have been an underground fave over in Ireland, but the quality is a let down, shame.

3/5

Alf Donatien

DIED SMILING – Evolution Of The Fist
An extremely competent metal outing here from the South West. Died Smiling can really play, guitar solos
'n all, Ingredients all present and correct, heavy bass drums, precision licks and an angry vocal delivery on top of great songwriting, this is one for the seekers of new UK metal acts, and though this may have been seen out with the likes of Stuck Mojo, I still think too few people are aware of this band and that needs to be corrected.
475

TESTSWITCH ISOLATOR - Let's Dance An ecclectic experimental hardcore mob, sounds interesting, tell me more. Well imagine Primus going over ideas with Sikth, add a little Converge and blend to distaste, a grindcore delight of wonderfulli ideas and weird subject matter, see song titles.

Darell E Ganapo

STATOBARDO – Another Education

Here is one that though caries all the elements one needs to deliver a lidy, quality filled nu-metal album, in the vein of Deftones and Limp Bizkit, it lacks not just in originality, and perhaps a mistimed jump on that bandwagon, but also anything that makes the album stand out even from itself, after hearing this album, wentra left popularing as nothing remains in the brain, a you're left pondering as nothing remains i sure it has it's odd moments, just too few. ns in the brain, and

SCHIZTOME – The Art Of Dying
Schiztome have a brutal and well honed sound that is equal parts thrash, hardcore and death metal. This albur wastes no time throwing you into the fray immediately and is a bludgeoning and impressive effort. Definitely worth a listen.

James O'Toole

SAL – Dysfunctional
Hot on the heels of the Single released earlier, comes this awesome and catchy as fk slab of pop punk hard rock, imagine Gwen Stefani or Skin, with a touch of Guano Apes. No wonder Kerrang! said - Expect to see this lot on Top Of The Pops, we know what they mean.
5/5 Jo Leagle

HEADSPEED – Blueprint For Disaster
Blueprint For Disaster is a powerful and punishing album in the vein of Machine Head. Headspeed mosh friendly, weighly metal and headbang inducing riffs will please many a metal fan. A bruising album from a band with clear potential.

3/5

LARUSO - Bring It On

LARUSO – Bring It On
Many of you may have already caught this band out with the likes of Fighstar. A very mature and utterly convincing commercial proposition, mature and songs the likes of Lostprohets would kill for. Absolutely incredible writing and performance and a top-notch production to boot, puts this forward as my tip, most likely to break from the Casket roster. Catch this now, just so you can tell people you did and you always knew.
5/5

NAILED - A Pure World Is A Dead World

NAILED – A Pute world is A Dead World
A band that has lies to the incestuous metal scene of Yorkshire, in My Dying Bride, Anathema et al and in may ways shows. Ex Dominion (Peacewille) guitarist MASS and his merry men show a technical edge that lies paralled to the grunt and doom moments this platter shares equally. A good mix and what it lacks in originally it nails (scuse the pun) in conviction 215.

NECROCEST – Dead Pretty

Production of the death metal at its best! Welsh me Necrocest have all the foul filth & perversion that's expected from this kinda bag! In the vien of Canniba Corpse to name but one of the greats if you like your metal sickening & vile then this their debut is a must to add that shock horror appeal to your record collection 3/5

Paul Schinnbach

OWINGTOTHIS – Breathe The Midnight Air
Uk hard-core melalers OwingToThis have made a pretty good attempt with this their debut album. Heavy, uncompromising & an in your face production that holds your attention throughout. Diverse riffing within song structures help to give the notion that we do have something a little more original, if not just the bands ability create their own sound & style.
4/5

Jason Woods (drums), makes a mockery of all those White Stripes wannabes and most certainly pulls off that retro style that only the most gay of contemporary jazz drummers can achievel (has he a hidden agenda?) Coo and well structured as 'Time Stands Still' may be, in my mind the band stands out for their catchy and infectious song writing if not the Stoner/Punk/Grunge style that some may categorise them! - Sssssssmokin' 5/5

Paul Schin

FRUIT TREE – Sunset
A mix of old school and a touch of death with female vocals has blended well in the construction, creating atmostphere and melody. If Fruit Tree had bothered to put as much effort in to their production as they have with their music then they trully would have something!

3/5 Paul Schinnbach

LOSING SUN - Inertia

LOSING SUN – Inertia
A modern stewpot of, sounds, very akin to One Minute Silence or a Breed 77, with whom their share a mix of cultures within their ranks. A strong and powerful release only hurt by the fact that soon after the release, we hear they lost their singer, shame.
215

Darell E Ganapo

FR8 – In Cold Blood
British Brutal Metall A quality production from Philia Studios, 'In Cold Blood" is an awesome debut from the Northumberland based quartet. The Guys can certainly put rivals from the USA to shame! But then Heavy metal was a British invention anyway! Very Cool.

Paul Schinnbach

BOHICA – No Apologies
Melodic hardcore some may say, the truth is Bohica have their own style to aggressive hardcore / melodic emo metalt Not your usual screamy shouty rubbish!
These guys add real texture to their creations with no comprimise on their attention to detail.

ISOR – Post Mortem Peep Show £ 9.99

Probably one of the most over looked albums this century! Post Mortem Peep Show is one of the most mind melting assaults of extreme hard core you can lend your ears to! Produced by Dave Chang & Nick Hemingway (Isor Drums) at the legendary Philia Studios , this debut album is well worth checking out.

Paul Schinnbach

PANIC CELL – Bitter Part Of Me

E 9,99
If you like your metal a little old school with a modern edge, then this is a must have item for your collection! With a state of the art Production courtesy of Dave Chang (Orange Goblin, Stampin' Ground, earthtone9) 'Bitter Part Of Me' is a mix of great riffs with melody and Paul Schinnbach

THIS ILLUSION -Not Just Listening

E 3.99
This Illusion fit in well with the rise of bands like Bullet
For My Valentine with their heavy, groovy riffs and strong melodies. Punk, metal and hardcore are thrown into the mix to create a solid EP.

James O'Toole

ODD-MAN-OUT-It All Ends Here
Odd Man Out fuse elements of Fugazi and Jetplane Landing with a great DIY work ethic and have created a very solid and honest album in 'It All Ends. Here.' A strong album, both lyrically and musically, definitely worth a listen.

we been extremely busy promoting the debut CD "Bloodlust and we sent Darell E Ganapo along to speak with ever present front man Chris, and this was his response

COMING TO THE END OF THE PROMOTIONAL CYCLE FOR DEBUT PLATTER "BLOODLUST CASUALTY", HOW HAS THE RIDE BEEN?

The ride has been truly fantastic, we've had a lot of good press, reviews, airplay etc with 'Bloodlust Casualty'. We always hoped that we would have a great introduction to the public eye and we feel we did just that with this mini-album. Everybody involved with this release has been truly awesome especially the guys at Copro/Casket who have been nothing but outstanding in their officers.

Admittedly we were taken very much by surprise when the distributor re-ordered 'Bloodlust' before the official release date and we had to repress very quickly, but sales have been healthy given we have no major budget, so it's been great. We've made some awesome new fans and played some great shows such as the Breed77 tour off the back of the release. The only scepticism we heard from a few people was the length of the mini-album. People who liked 'Bloodlust' are asking the same question "what can they expect from a full length release?" All I can say is just wait and see my friends!

ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS MUST HAVE BEEN PLAYING 'DOWNLOAD', WHAT WAS THAT LIKE?

Download was incredible, it's a childhood dream to play Donington on the same bill as Metallica and Guns n' Roses! It was a great moment for I-def-I and hopefully the first of many more. We had an awesome crowd, the tent was packed out despite the fact it was first thing on a Sunday morning! Three days of alcohol abuse and shenanigans can leave one feeling rather fragile early on the morn of the Sabbath, but we played a great show and the crowd seemed to really enjoy it. What more can you ask for?

THE REACTION AND FEEDBACK TO THE MINI ALBUM HAS BEEN PRETTY UNANIMOUSLY FAVOURABLE, DID THE BAND EXPECT SO MUCH FROM THIER FIRST REAL OUTPUT?

Well, we always intended to make a good impression with our first release. A lot of time and effort had gone into the writing and making of 'Bloodlust Casualty'. We took the time to make sure we were all very happy with the way it turned out. We decided to make a six strong CD of the tracks we deemed fit to show off the diversity of what we have as a band, showing off the extremities of melodic and heavy music combined. I think we did that quite well and made good choices with the songs we picked to be on there. The truth is we weren't ready for a full length release back in September last year, we still had a lot of growing to do musically and I think we have done that since the release of Bloodlust' and due to touring heavily since around June 2005 through to June 2006, nigh on non-stop. We primarily wanted 'Bloodlust' to be a launch pad for a long and steady career, and we feel it has fulfilled that purpose thus far.

MANCHESTER HAS HISTORICALLY BEEN A HOTBED FOR GUITAR BASED TALENT, IS THE MANCUNIAN SCENE THRIVING RIGHT NOW? WHAT ARE THE BEST NEW BANDS EMERGING FROM THE AREA?

Manchester is definitely known for having a great music community and spawning some great bands over the last two decades or so, however that's the thing that is also biting Manchester in the ass to a certain degree. To me when I'm out and about in Manchester I seem to get overwhelmed by barrage of talent-less indie bands with bad haircuts, who are still swinging from the Stone Roses' pubic hair. However Manchester does have a music ene, although more often than not it's overshadowed by corpse of the indie overent and gets a little neglected.

There are some good metal bands from Manchester such as Profane, I-Remain, The Daywalkers etc and we have played many good shows many good with some or

Nah, in all honesty I think Myspace is a great tool for bands and artists to get discovered. It allows people to openly check out stuff they normally wouldn't have ever come across. We have had a great amount of success via Myspace and have an ever growing fan base which gives us a lot of plays

Tips wise I'd say take the time to thank people for their feedback, and just be genuine and honest, don't just randomly spam their pages with huge flyers or use excessive spam/mailbots. We really try to reply to anyone who takes the time to listen to I-DEF-I on myspace etc even though it can be hard.

WE HEAR THAT DRUMMER MEL, HAS RECENTLY BEEN OUSTED FROM THE BAND, IS THERE ANY JUICY GOSSIP TO GO WITH THAT, WHAT'S THE STORY AND IS THERE A REPLACEMENT ANNOUNCED YET?

Yes that is true, we let him go. It wasn't an easy decision to make after all we have been through as a band thus far, we had a long standing battle over the last year between the loyalty we had towards him as a friend and problems we were having due to his attitude and work ethic, but in the end there was

As for I-def-I and the replacement drummer, all I can say is wait until you hear

With this record we're aiming to keep things a little more up-beat, and we're drawing from our more rock based influences without compromising any of our heaviness. We're really pushing our creativity as far as we can and getting a little more technical in parts (without becoming an obviously 'progressive' type of band) and we have some riffs that will shed the skin off your balls!

the new songs, it will all make sense then

THE BAND ARE CURRENTLY REHEARSING AND WRITING FOR THE BANDS DEBUT FULL LENGTH ALBUM, WHEN CAN WE EXPECT TO SEE THIS RELEASED AND WHAT CAN YOU TELL US ABOUT THE NEW SONGS

Well we have all the tracks written for the new album, 15 in total, and hopefully they will all make the album. Some of the song titles are, 'Army Of The Locust', 'Static And Signals', 'Kinetic', 'Tunnel Rat' and 'Beauty Into Devastation'. We've been pushing ourselves hard over the last year and our musical vocabulary has really increased since 'Bloodlust Casualty'.

From a vocal perspective this album is going to have about five or six songs where it is just singing and no screaming. That is something we've wanted to touch on a little more in the past, and we wanted to introduce a little more melody into certain songs. At the same time though on the opposite end of the spectrum we have written some of the heaviest most disgusting I-DEF-I tracks to date and there will still be gut wrenching screams, just in a more interesting way. I'd say, the way it's sounding right now, this album is going to have a very strong 'rock meets metal meets grunge' in a twisted love triangle kind of feel.

Too many to tell here!!! We've got Jim as a drummer for I'ck sake, the guys totally bent. haha. I remember when we were in Ireland back in 2002 supporting our debut EP 'In The Name Of A God'. We had just completed a four date tour of Ireland and had made it back to the ferry port at Rosslare to wait for our crossing. Was about 3 in the morning and we were all totally awake and completely pissed. We pulled in next to a family who were all fast asleep in their camper van. Big Mistake, they were all target practice for the next three hours, until the ferry came. Everything we had in the van was hurled out across the car park at this poor family camper van, the thing was actually rocking with each hit. Then we'd quickly shut the door and pretend it was not us, when we were the only vehicle in about 50 meters of this van. Disgusted with ourselves. They were glad to get rid of us a that port that day. Another good one was the Knuckledust tour 2001. We had a great show and were chilling out after the show with the bands, and ended up being in a twenty man brawl with the locals. We played London the next night with bruises and black eyes.

2. OUTSIDE THE BAND, WHAT DO MEMBERS GET OFF ON?
We get off on a lot of things! Beautiful women, first of all - golta have your priorities, right? Then there's music of -gotta have your priorities, right? Then there's music of course: in general, and metal in particular. We like going to concerts and festivals, drinking, hanging out and havir fun with our friends. We are all pretty much into movies a great way of spending time. Yes, porn as well (except for Vital, he thinks it's degrading to women - yep, that's probably the most-heard excuse). Some of us like to rear Two of us have kids, which can be pretty time-consuming I guess. Everyone enjoys a nice vacation once in a while. I just returned from a short trip to Budapest, which was excellent. The rest of the band is also enjoying some time off right now. You see, there's a lot of stuff we like to do. But in the end making music is pretty much number one, I'd say. Performing, rehearsing, recording, writing - everything about music is cool. O, and I love watching my Dick Turpin DVD, which was recently given to me as a present! Man, I used to love that series when I was young, but they never re-run it on Dutch television.

3. TELLS US A BIZARRE STORY FROM THE BANDS CAMP, (DOESN'T HAVE TO BE RELATED TO MUSIC). Well, there's a few stories that come to mind instantly. First of all the show in London with Nile, which was part of our recent UK tour with Detonation. We were supposed to play for half an hour, but the first band got off stage pretty late, so we just had a few minutes to prepare. Well, technically I wasn't even there, cause I was running around London with a big bag of merch (we accidentally left it on the bus). So I got there like two minutes before we were on. The rest of us set up all the stuff on stage four dressing room was the bathroom, by the way). On stage, the stage crew pulled a few stunts, like pulling away the bass drum mic. But in the end we managed to play three of our songs. Then we started the fourth song (Into the Pit' by Testament) and the stage manager comes up to me and tells me he's gonna cut the power if we don't stop. Of course we wouldn't stop. But I'm standing there on stage in The Scala, trying to thrash like a maniac and having an overheated discussion with the stage manager, who really wants us to stop instantly. We finished the f'cking song, got off stage in two minutes with all our gear and that was it. Another (short) story is about a guy who auditioned with us as a guilarist, before Danny had joined the band. This is guy is a desent guilar player, and we sat down and worked through one of our songs. Took us all night, but that happens Anyway, he calls me up a few days later and he says "I'm out on pons join published man." So I ask him why not not gonna join Fuelblooded man". So I ask him why not. He says "Those riffs of yours have given me three fucking sleepless nights! I can't have it anymore, find someone else Haha, and then we found Danny. And I think he sleeps like a baby at joid.

4. RANT: TELL US ONE THING THAT GETS YOUR BLOOD BOILING AND ONE THING THAT BRINGS JOY TO THE BAND.

Few things get our blood bolling, really. We're pretty laid back. Of course we don't like being played for a fool, we won't have any of that. Of course I hate unfounded criticism, that is the worst thing. You read the reviews of your album, and you read that people don't like it, that's ok. But the reasons for the disliking... man, some people just don't listen They think they can review an album based on one spin? Or even based on just a few songs, not even the whole album? Don't these people take their job (or hobby) seriously? Other people read that stuff and form an opinion based on the shit some of these guys write. The least they can do is listen to the music that was sent to them for free (!!!) and write a decent review about it. If they can't do that, or refuse to take the time for it, get out of the business. The same goes for promoters, really. These guys get a lot of request from bands to play shows, but they won't take the time to listen to all the stuff that is sent to them. Now listen, if Fuelblooded happen to make it is little player it the industry. Wese furchers stuff that is sent to them. Now listen, if Fuelblooded happen to make it a little bigger in the industry, these fuckers will contact me themselves and ask me if I wanna play their venue. I will, but I am asking myself: a year ago I sent you a promo, with the same shit we're still playing, but back then you didn't even listen. I know it is a market place, but there's just no way for an unknown band to do anything. In general, promoters rather book shitty bands from their hometown to bring in the binge drinkers, instead of a crowd of people that love music. Hmm, I guess I got a little carried away there haha! I was referring to the situation in Holland, by the way. It's is slowly getting better for us, but it still takes away there hahal I was referring to the situation in Holland, by the way. It's is slowly getting better for us, but it still takes a lot of time and effort to get our shows booked.

Man, so many things bring joy to the band! The smallest things, like pulling of a difficult break during rehearsal, brings big smiles to our faces. We generally have a good time together. And we're getting better all the time. That is a great feeling. O, and we're working on songs for the new album. And lemme tell you: these new songs bring the biggest fucking smiles to our faces!

2. OUTSIDE THE BAND, WHAT DO MEMBERS GET

Outside the band, I'm a biker and I like going on runs andrallies here and in Europe, I'm a football fan, I go fishing and I have two dogs which I enjoy walking on the hills. Andy is a football fan too but he also likes quiet places,enjoy the solitude that graveyards provide and likes to visit them when he can,He is a vegan, anti blood sports, very active in his youth in protests against them, he is a deep thinker,a very gond attist very good atrist and no mean poet. Reece is keen on motorsport, he prefers four wheeled antics to my two wheeled ones, has spent more than one summer as part of a rally support crew, doesn't watch football, he is the real music fan of the band he regularly attends concerts and buys more cd's than Andy and I put together.

3. TELLS US A BIZARRE STORY FROM THE BANDS CAMP, (DOESN'T HAVE TO BE RELATED TO MUSIC)

Nightmare Visions and bizarre stories go hand in hand, like the girl from Burnley who said in our rehearsal room that she wasn't really a fan of metal, we valued her right to her opinion, the guardian spiril of our rehearsal room didn't she slipped down the fourteen iron steps to our unit and we sat upstairs and counted the bumps as her arse hit every one, but the craziest was one mad weekend there were four of us in the band, Reece's brother Gary was still in the band on guitar, step one Gary goes pale after rehearsal and his heart tries to punch its way out of his chest, (he's a Kung fu grade 12 and as fit as a fiddle so this was more of a shock than a surprise), step 2 Reece, pissed up, sword fighting on the backyard wall at a barbecue fell off and broke his ankle. Step 3. me a Step 3. me a builder by trade used to working at height, fell off a stepladder while changing a light bulb, on the way town, a conveniently placed nail stuck in my right arse cheek as I slid down the wall, I couldnt sit on my drun stool for 4 days. Step 4. same weekend, Andy doing the good house keeping thing was trimming the hedge, he felt something strange (his words) he'd only cut the ends of his fingers almost off by catching them in a hedge trimmer, If that's not a bizarre series of events to happen in such a short time, well I'll plait fog.

Influences, once again many and varied, From Sabbath up to the present day everything we listen to and every action we make has an influence. The real governing influence on the way we sound is that we enjoy playing and creating the music that we do we all have limits on what we are capable music that we do, we all have littings of what we are capative of playing and that really influences how we eventually sound. A gig where a load of police women raided it, we thought they were all strippers and treated them as if they were, it wasn't until we were all threatened with being arrested that we realized they weren't, then a load of alcohol loaded super soakers came out, resulting in a member of the support band dressed in a Santa outfit because his clothes were soaked in tequila, a certain singer being locked in the dressing room most of the night with some bird/ promoter who worked at the club. Towards the end of the night/morning a Psylence band member was found trying to wrestle a giant inflatable Jagermeister bottle into a ruck sack, after realizing it wasn't possible in his current state passed out on a pool table then after 20 minutes sleep had to load the van in a very drunk state....(this took agest). The support band singer was so drunk a brain was drawn on his head with mascara and was found talking to himself with the lights off, Jying on the gents bog floor. And finally on the way home we tried buying an ice-cream from an ice-cream van at 90 mph on the m62 on the way home. Twas a good night.

1. IN ONE SENTENCE, HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE

A classic no-nonsense melodic metal band with an eclectic approach to serious song writing.

2. OUTSIDE THE BAND, WHAT DO MEMBERS GET

We are Irish so obviously we are fond of the alcohol and a bit of criac, but apart from that most of our time is spent on the band in one way or another.

3. TELLS US A BIZARRE STORY FROM THE BANDS CAMP, (DOESN'T'T'T HAVE TO BE RELATED TO MUSIC).

Recently the strangest thing that has been happening is the reviews of our CD "Tides Of Opinion". While most of the reviews have been very positive e people get preoccupied by the fact that we're Irish and begin to hear Folk influences and jig structures in our music (we just don't get it). And when we get foreign language reviews the Babel Fish translating them are classic: In one review our guitarist describes as a 'sofa' on the guitar.

4. RANT: TELL US ONE THING THAT GETS YOUR BLOOD BOILING AND ONE THING THAT BRINGS JOY TO THE BAND.

What really gets to me is that the world seems totally preoccupied with preoccupied with financial success.
People just don't seem to understand the simple pleasure of doing what you lawe repardless of how it will be received.

regardless of how it will be received It's like the only way of measuring success is through record re not like that - we'll be still doing this weather we sell 12 CDs or 12 because we believe in what we're about. As far a joy; the most amazing thing for us is still having an idea making it into a song, recording it, putting it on CD, and then sitting back and listening to it and thinking we did that What completely surprises us is when we go out to play and see that people are relating to our music, that just blows me away.

1. IN ONE SENTENCE, HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE THE BAND?

We are completely different people from the others and this is the most important thing that we have in common. Moreover it has created a very particular tuning/syntony (sic) in a position to transmitting to us strong emotions and a very good feeling when we play together.

2. OUTSIDE THE BAND, WHAT DO MEMBERS GET OFF ON?

and works

We are not only musicians but among us there is also a chef, an accountant, a waiter and three of us are students. Sometimes someone does two jobs but we always play together. We record by ourselves and we've built our recording studio. Ok, we do a lot of things and sure it's very hard to go on, but we have a great passion for music and we do this with great pleasure.

3. TELLS US A BIZARRE STORY FROM THE BANDS CAMP, (DOESN'T HAVE TO BE RELATED TO MUSIC). CAMP, (DOESN'T HAVE TO BE RELATED TO MUSIC). During the making of the video of the song "Underneath" we used false blood in one scene. The make-up man put it on the hands, the mouth and the face of Gianluca, Rick and Nick, and they wore long ruined funic with strange cowl. When they ended this particular scene they went to the courtyard to have a break, but they were still dirty with this false blood. It was then that they were seen by a person that was walking there by chance. This person didn't recognize the false blood and thought that they were making something like a satanic sacrifice. We laughed like crazy people when he ran away screaming. he ran away screaming.

BLOOD BOILING AND ONE THING THAT BRINGS JOY TO THE BAND.

Sometimes it happens that singers, bands and people don't assign to the music it's most important value and instead use it as an easy way to make money. You can see this in the charts where the business gives opportunities not to wonderful music but to beautiful singers and this gets our blood holling.

When people listen to our songs and feel the same emotions we have when we play them, it brings joy to us; in the same way just give us a drum, a bass, a guitar and a mic: this brings joy to the band!

hmm the thing that gets our blood boiling is other bands and fans ignorance towards each other, if people don't get it don't get upset about it just 1'ck off, if you like us then talk to us and have a laugh, if you don't understand what we try to say then just ignore it, basically a lot of bands we play with are up there own arse's and that gets on our tits cos non of them are exactly the Beatles now are they. and the joys to the band are writing our new material and knowing how much

We've been described as a band who takes the best parts of old and new, mixing just enough dark edged metal with melodic rock and jazzy tones to give a sound that fits no single genre, but draws from many.

2. Outside the band, what do members get off on?

3. TELLS US A BIZARRE STORY FROM THE BANDS CAMP, (DOESN'T HAVE TO BE RELATED TO MUSIC).

We once were asked to do a gig for a company that Bill had once worked for. They were having a 'team building event' in this great old mansion, we were the surprise entertainment. We creep into the place with a van full of gear, setup and sound-check in near silence, when the party arrived they were pleasantly surprised to see an old colleague on the drums, kicking out some rock music! We played the gig and then hit the bar. Since the drinks were on the company the booze was flowing fast, we ended up gulping back whatever we could get our hands on and snorting Tequila shots lined up on the bar. At about midnight the drunken crowd called for us to get back onstage, We stagger back to our instruments and fire it up. Plastered, the crowd didn't really care that we couldn't play for shlt 'cos of all the booze, but had a great time and got a good laugh when Andy Lee staggered backward blind drunk, knocking my amp-stack flying offstage and into a fireplace! We haul the amp out, brush off the ash and continue. What followed the gig becomes a bit of a mystery, but I hazily remember the gig becomes a bit of a mystery, but I hazily remember a dentists chair (enough said) and that we ended up in a huge bathroom, in a large pair of victorian iron bathtubs each with a woman on our laps, while an 8 month pregnant woman offered out bags of whizz and charlie... Quite an extraordinary night

4. RANT: TELL US ONE THING THAT GETS YOUR BLOOD BOILING AND ONE THING THAT BRINGS JOY TO THE BAND.

What make the band rant- Garts: I hate manufactured pop. It winds me up that the publicity machines of big spending labels can force feed such drivel to the masses when so much quality talent is going to waste. Andy S: Arrogant bands out for themselves without giving the time for other bands in the same pot - Dudes, we're on the same side, man!!

Makes us happy: Standing onstage at the end of a blinding gig hearing the crowd chant "UN-CHO-SEN, UN-CHO-SEN". Always a hell of a buzz! Without the fans, it would not be fun, simple.
